> More about Gelati PEPINO 1884

The history of the oldest gelato production in Europe begins in 1884 when Domenico Pepino, a Neapolitan gelato maker, decided to move to Turin to bring his knowledge at the Savoy's Royal court.

On 17 June 1916 the business was sold to Mr. Giuseppe Cavagnino and his father-in-law, Mr. Feletti, already known food entrepreneurs from Turin, who gave life to a period of great innovation and international records.

In 1939, after years of studies and tests, they created the Pinguino®, the first chocolate covered gelato on a stick (patent No. 58033), which has since then become a symbol of the constant balance between industry and high craftsmanship.

Now as then, GELATI PEPINO 1884 is a unique family business, run by Mr. Edoardo Cavagnino, descendant of Giuseppe, that places the utmost attention to the quality of its products and ingredients, constantly renewing the tradition of good Italian gelato.
