

SALUMIFICIO TRE VALLI

> More about SALUMIFICIO TRE VALLI

Salumificio Tre Valli, today SALUMIFICIO CAVOUR, was established in 1975 in Cavour, a Piedmontese village located at the door of three beautiful river's valleys : Chisone, Pellice and Po.

In the countryside the salami have always been a cult, they are ready to be served when friends come around, they are the starter of a meal and they satisfy you when you are looking for something nice to eat.

We work with a great passion for the tradition and a strong connection with the territory. The products are realized in an artisanal way and high quality, now guaranteed by the most stringent international certifications (BRC, IFS).

Our of 5000 sqm facility is equipped with eco-friendly and state of the art machinery. The entire production cycle is done internally. Our salami dry and ripen under the special condition of the natural reserve of the Rocca di Cavour.
