> More about RISO MERLANO

Riso Merlano is one of the few Italian complete chains: rice is grown, milled and packed directly from the company, using traditional methods such as stone rice husking combined with the most advanced ones to process paddy from ready-to-cook rice. We choose only the best lots from cultivations, we process the paddy putting in the center of our activity the quality, the products safety and our final customer's satisfaction. Thanks to the highest quality standards we managed to achieve BRC, IFS, ISO9001, ISO22005, HALAL, Kosher and Bioagricert certifications
