

Giraudi

> Food & Beverage

Chocolate & pralines / Chocolate, nut, nougat spreads /
Confectionary & Spreads / Distribution channel / Gourmet Shop /
Private label

> More about Giraudi

GIRAUDI company is the story of a chocolate passion since 1907. For more than 100 years indeed, the GIRAUDI family has handed down love for sweet products. Since he was young, Giacomo Boidi, Battista Giraudi's grandson and Paolino Boidi, have developed a great passion for chocolate, becoming internationally famous for the excellent quality of his products.

Giraudi

GIRAUDI owns a modern and productive family-run business in Castellazzo Bormida, close to Turin and Milan, in Piedmont's heart, operating in the niche market of handcraft chocolate producers. The team is specialized in chocolate making, producing little masterpieces, cultivating, year after year, an extraordinary talent of obtaining artisanal products with innovative techniques. By using technology, GIRAUDI company reaches perfection, ensuring unique and guaranteed products. Top-quality cocoa - like Criollo, Trinitario, Cru Savage and Piedmont's hazelnuts - creativity and handcraft production are GIRAUDI company's distinctive aspects. The company offers a catalogue with almost 200 different references and it ensures consumers the highest quality daily tested.

GIRAUDI has also been awarded several times with silver and golden prizes at the International Chocolate Awards and it regularly takes part to important events and fairs in Italy, such as "Taste" in Florence and "Tuttofood" in Milan and abroad joining the "ISM" in Cologne, the "Italian Food and Wine" in Singapore and the "Italian Embassy" in Belgrade.

> Contacts

Address: via Giraudi 498 - CASTELLAZZO BORMIDA

Email: info@giraudi.it

Website: www.giraudi.it

Spoken Languages English, French, Italian

