> More about Geo4Map srl

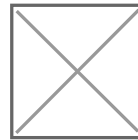

Geo4Map is the Italian leader in geography and cartography sectors.

Geo4Map has demonstrated considerable growth capacity over time boosted by two important achievements: in 2014, the acquisition of Istituto De Agostini's entire geo-mapping publishing division, and in 2015, the launch of the Libreria Geografica brand, specialized in publishing, educational and scholastic products.

Libreria Geografica encompasses the tradition and evolution of De Agostini's centuries-old history, adding value to such elements in order to guarantee products that unite experience and quality as well as innovation of the newest technologies used in geographic and cartographic publishing.

Today Geo4Map is ready to face every future challenges about cartography and localization with increasingly innovative and modern projects consistent with new technologies.
