

EP&S SCARL

> More about EP&S SCARL

EP&S. s.c.a.r.l - Engineering Project & Service, is an integrated engineering company, specializing in architecture, engineering, and plant engineering. The company was born in Turin in December of 2013, and works in Italy, Europe, Asia and the Americas.

The founding members of E. P. &S. are three primary companies Simete. Srl, E.L. engineering service srl, Prodim srl that have academic and professional experience since the early years of the '900 in Italy and abroad.

The presence of academics and professionals with proven experience have directed our activities toward the search of integrated and advanced design In accordance with the new requirements of environmental development and solutions sustainable urban planning,

The group is composed of about 100 unit specialized in architecture, civil, infrastructural and plant engineering and urban planning.

EP&S offers services to support all phases of design:

concept, planning, organization and direction of the work.

Services offered include:

- feasibility and investment studies, and preliminary, definitive, executive and construction design, construction management, accounting, acceptance of work;

EP&S SCARL

- Project e Construction Management;
- site safety;
- technical and administrative assistance with Public Administration,
- training services and technical control, test and measurement;
- environmental studies;
- innovation new technologies.

> Contacts

Address: Via Treviso n. 12 - Torino

Email: gare@simete.com

Website: www.eps-group.it

