> More about MATTIOLI

Since 1860, MATTIOLI is the finest quality jewelry producer from Torino, Italy. The Piemontese authorities bestowed upon the atelier the prestigious hallmark "1TO" to certify the workshop was specialized in the creation of gold jewelry and inlaid necklaces. Today it certifies an unbroken heritage of more than 150 years. Considerable investments in technology and human resources have been made since then: in 2000 a new range of products was launched under the guidance of Licia Mattioli, who redesigned the company's structure both on management and creative side. The jewels have quickly achieved success in more than 30 countries.

MATTIOLI takes inspiration from the experiences of Licia Mattioli: nature, art and travels. This creation path allows the jewel itself to spread tales of dreams through its fine craftsmanship. Every MATTIOLI jewel is 100% handcrafted in Italy and reunites the antique traditions of Italian artisan craftsmanship with the most up-to-date technologies and equipment. Versatility, playfulness, color, elegance and originality make of MATTIOLI an absolutely unique brand, a world of jewels enriched with stories to tell.
