> More about GILORO

Design is the essence of creation, an expression of classicism rich in aesthetic sophistication. A noble spirit and a vibrant heart find their embodiment in jewellery that is up-to-date, eclectic and alive. Artistic creations marries the ancient art of master goldsmiths with the latest techniques in design. The technological innovation fuses with the story of the jewel, narrating the GILORO know-how in each precious creation.

Since 1979, the GILORO collections have been product of the finest Italian goldsmith manufacture and meticulously researched style. Qualities fused in a range of high jewellery, acclaimed among an international clientèle. The perfection of each single detail encapsulates its exclusive concept, exquisite and displayed like the precious gems that grace it, telling its story. Exclusive and unique, like the woman who wears it.

In this spirit GILORO brings body and soul to its creations, here each design is elite, precious and resplendent with the passion that created it. GILORO radiates with a new look: a young team, skilled in the creation of ideas and works of artistry, have given shape to real, modern collections that are particularly focused on the trends of contemporary fashion.

“Every GILORO jewel is unique. Small masterpieces of immense emotional and sensory value that fully express the skills of master goldsmiths, the design research and the sublime sartorial finish”.
