> More about FIM

From 2018, to meet the new international challenges, Fim acquires Coro (outdoor furniture), this in order to join a single pole of Italian companies with a high quality design outdoor furnishings. The purpose is to offer a more complete range of products and solutions together with the creation of synergies in production, management and distribution, this is useful in enhancing the individual brand of Group companies.

Today we export our Made in Italy in all over the world together with complete design solutions for every outdoor area, horeca, contract. Our strength is the passion together with the total quality to create value for our customers.

An ever-increasing family, enlarged to hundreds between employees and collaborators around the world. Professionalism, charm, creativity are the shared values of those who live and represent the Group. We believe in teamwork and in meetings with people from different cultures and countries but with common values. That's where new ideas come about.
