> More about CASA LEGNO TENDAGGI

CASALEGNO TENDAGGI was born over seventy years ago in Chieri, the historic land of weavers. Due to the passion of those who work there and to its consolidated professional culture, the company has grown over time to become a point of reference in the supply of decorative wide-width curtains and upholstery fabrics.

Emblematic of made in Italy and highly esteemed by specialized buyers, the company distinguishes itself by its attention to quality, innovation and service. And for a special dedication to style and design.

The company's principal market is that of international distributors who select fabrics produced by CASALEGNO for curtains and decoration which is then cut, packaged and personalized and finally sold to the consumer market.
